

Our Values

We exist to help people come to know Jesus and to grow into mature followers in Him for the sake of our city and our world. We believe that placing our faith in Him is a foundational first step toward knowing God and to growing into the person he desires us to be. As we are being transformed into His likeness we are empowered to participate in His work of transformation in our world. We value...

Communion with God

John 15:4-8; John 6:56; Ephesians 5:15-19; 1 John 2:4-6

Through Jesus Christ, God invites all people to enter into a life-transforming relationship with Him. This relationship with God begins as we place our faith in His Son, Jesus Christ, and as we continue to grow as followers of Christ.

Thanksgiving

Colossians 3:15-17; Philippians 4:6-7; 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

We consider thanksgiving an important mark of a maturing follower of Jesus Christ. In response to His complete provision, we are called to live lives marked by thanksgiving.

Generous Hospitality

James 1:17; 1 John 4:8-10; Romans 12:13-18; Matthew 25:34-43

We value generous hospitality as a response to the grace of God and as the intentional sharing of our life with others. Hospitality is the deliberate act of making room for people in our lives so that they too may experience the welcome and grace of God.

Intergenerational Ministry

Mark 3:33-35; John 17:20-23; Ephesians 4:11-16

We value all members within our faith community. We believe that we need each other to grow as followers of Jesus Christ. We are committed to passing on our faith well to the next generation, and we strive to encourage and strengthen one another in our pursuit of a Christ-like life.

Transparency

Ephesians 4:15-16, 25; Psalm 15:1-2; 1 John 3:18

We desire to be known as a church that conducts our work with honesty and integrity. We believe that transparency defines the mature follower of Jesus, and we value it because it results in a greater degree of trust and ownership among us.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY:

Following a time of worship together, our children (Grades 3 and under) are released to their age appropriate breakout sessions upstairs. Drop off and pick up is at the top of the stairs. Route 456 (Grades 4-6) will be meeting at the top of the stairs. (On the last Sunday of each month, the grades 4-6 students are invited to stay in the service.) Nursery care is also provided in the hallway space to the right of the stairs.

Prayer Ministry

WEEKLY BIBLE STUDY AND PRAYER TIME SUNDAY MORNINGS AT SKYVIEW

Join us every Sunday morning from 9:00 – 10:00 a.m. as we pray together for the needs of others.

If you have a prayer request or any other need at any time, please feel free to notify us by contacting our pastoral care team at care@skyviewchurch.ca or filling out a communication card. We respect your privacy and will keep your prayer requests and needs confidential unless you specify otherwise.

Announcements

We will be participating in the Nazarene World Evangelism Fund Thank Offering on October 8, 2017. This is an annual special Thanksgiving offering collected by the global Nazarene church in support of missions initiatives around the world. For more information about this offering visit www.nazarene.org/generosity. Please come prepared to give generously!

Our Skyview Church Board has made the decision to send a gift on behalf of our church to Nazarene Compassionate Ministries for ongoing hurricane relief efforts in the United States and Caribbean nations. If you are looking for a way to provide your support to these ongoing efforts or would like to learn more about the kind of work being done by Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, please visit www.ncm.org.

We invite you to consider being part of an awesome ministry opportunity that reaches out to international students called Home Away from Home. HAFH is a hospitality and friendship ministry in which people from within our church family serve as friendship families to students at the University of Calgary. For more information or to sign up please visit www.home-away-from-home.ca.

Thanks to everyone who volunteered at the Harvest Hills Community Garden this summer! Harvest took place last weekend and we were able to send a large supply of fresh potatoes and beets to the food bank.

Missionary Visitors Coming Soon!

On October 22, 2017 we are excited to have Tim and Michelle Eby join us to share about their work in the missions field.

Tim and Michelle Eby serve as career missionaries with the Church of the Nazarene in Dakar, Senegal. Tim works in leadership development and church growth in the country of Senegal as well as assisting the Field Strategy Coordinator across the Africa West Field. Michelle serves as the treasurer for the field and supports local ministry. Pray for them as they support the AWF leadership, coordinate partnerships, and lead volunteer teams to develop training centers all across the 16 countries of West Africa.

The Eby's will be moving to South Africa this late fall to take on new roles with the Africa Region. Please pray for them as they prepare for this move and transition.

Tim grew up on the mission field in Papua New Guinea with his parents Lee and Carol Ann Eby. He felt a call on his life to mission service at the age of 16 and pursued his education in aviation at LeTourneau University in Longview, Texas. Michelle is also a missionary kid from Beirut, Lebanon where her parents Larry and Sharon Buess served with the church of the Nazarene. Tim and Michelle met at Trevecca Nazarene University and with similar goals and calling in life were married in 1987. In 1988, with a B.S. in Aviation Technology, his commercial pilot licenses, and all his mechanic ratings, Tim began his career in aviation in Atlanta, Georgia. Over the next 9 years he gained experience before being deployed as a missionary pilot to East Africa.

In August of 1997, they were assigned as Nazarene missionaries to the Africa East Field to open the work for Nazarene Mission Aviation. They also worked to expand the church throughout East Africa until 2003. The Ebys took a three-year leave of absence serving as youth pastors in Moscow, ID. Tim completed his masters in Christian education with an emphasis in youth and children ministries. He also completed his course of study and was ordained as a minister in April of 2006 on the Northwest District. Their children are Chris, who is married to Cristen with twin boys and a girl living in Seattle and serving in the US Army; Heather, who is married to Marc Trembly living in Valparaiso, IN and graduated from Olivet Nazarene University; Amber, attended Trevecca Nazarene University, married to Derek and just recently completed her masters in counseling; and Jonathan, is a student at Trevecca Nazarene University.

God continues to work through the ministry of Tim and Michelle as they serve Him on the mission field. Their passion is to see the development of national leaders who will lead the church in Africa to maturity and significance. Their positions require much travel and great wisdom as they develop tools of evangelism and discipleship that are effective for the African context. Please pray that God will give them strength, wisdom, and safety as they teach and preach the Good News of Christ.

We will plan to take a special missionary offering in support of the work being done by the Eby's on Sunday, October 22nd. Please come prepared to give generously!

SERMON NOTES – October 1, 2017

Matthew 21:23-32 NIV

²³ Jesus entered the temple courts, and, while he was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. “By what authority are you doing these things?” they asked. “And who gave you this authority?”

²⁴ Jesus replied, “I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. ²⁵ John’s baptism—where did it come from? Was it from heaven, or of human origin?”

They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ ²⁶ But if we say, ‘Of human origin’—we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet.”

²⁷ So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Then he said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

²⁸ “What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’

²⁹ “‘I will not,’ he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.

³⁰ “Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, ‘I will, sir,’ but he did not go.

³¹ “Which of the two did what his father wanted?”

“The first,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you. ³² For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him.

As a church we are committed to open dialogue concerning matters of Christian faith. Our speaker is available following the morning service for conversations pertaining to today’s message. If you have a question, comment, or need, feel free to speak him following this morning’s service.
